

Pharmaease is a mobile application that is used to locate the nearest pharmacy that have a drug , pharmaease is developed by yazn zamel , yara Shehadeh and lamis sweidan. The mobile application is developed using flutter programming language as a frontend and python with fastapi as a backend programming language , the supervisor of the project is dr. firas Ghanem.